Peri Smilow to perform Sunday

The Jewish Federation of the Berkshires presents a concert by singer/songwriter Peri Smilow Sunday evening at 7:30 at the Duffin Theater at Lenox Memorial High School.

Smilow has been cited for her powerful Jewish music based on ancient texts made relevant for today's world. Rabbi David S. Wolfman, regional director for the UAHC Northeast Council, wrote that Smilow "is one of those rare Jewish singers who really makes a difference," and that she "has taken the world of Jewish music by storm; she is captivating, engaging and immediately brings everyone to feel included and uplifted."

Tickets are $20 for adults and $15 for children in advance, $30 for adults, $20 for children at the door. Proceeds will benefit the Israel Emergency Campaign. To purchase advance tickets, call Arlene Schiff at 442-4360, ext. 12.

Lenox Memorial High School is at 197 East St. in Lenox.
